GENEALOGY OF THE EPHRATA BOWMANS

The following was taken from the Bowman Genealogy prepared by Mrs. A. D. Thomas, of Hans Dieter Bowman.

The Bowman Family are descendants of Uly Buman, of Switzerland.

BUMAN or BAUMAN, came from Zurich in Switzerland and Alsace.

They were Pietists - Mennonites - for which they were expelled and came into the Rhine Valley and Holland.

Those who settled in Weisbaden owned and had interests in silver mines in the Muribach Mountains of Ems, where they founded villages and schools.

In the Archives of Canton and Berne, Switzerland, are the following:

1449 - The first born (Gross), ULY BUMAN, Weisbaden, Muribach, first of Zimmersburg.

1491 - Young HANS BUMAN - Duremens and Lauterhaus.

1527 - ULY HANS BAUMAN, Kimmerdahl, Gross HANS OF MURIBACH.

DESCENDANTS ARE

WENDELL BOWMAN, born in 1681, settled in America in 1709, and is the line of the Ephrata Bowmans.

WILHELM BOWMAN, born in 1683, settled at Philadelphia in 1709.

JOHN BOWMAN, born in 1685, settled in 1712, and is Henry Howard Bowman's line.

THE ENGLISH BOWMANS

The following is taken from the Book of HANS DEETER BOWMAN - Genealogy - Author, Mrs. A. D. Thomas, 229 Clivedon Ave., Glendale, Philadelphia, in the Library of the Philadelphia Historical Society.

In 1608, WENDELL BOWMAN, married Ann the daughter of the Earl of Beresford, who emigrated to America in the Winthrop fleet.

Many of their descendants settled in the New England States and Canada.

In Kitchener, Waterloo County, the Provincial Governor erected a monument for the Bowmans, the founders of Bowmanstown, Canada.

FAMILY CRESTS

There are two known family crests.

The English Crest is a tree stump in shield with arrows, surmounted by the figure of a man bearing a bow and a quiver of arrows. This crest exceeds in age, all but one in England.

They were the upholders of Charles the I and are the original "Archers."

Their motto is, "Formerly by these arms we conquered."

This crest was brought over in a ring by one Joseph Bowman.

The Swiss family crest is in the Castle of Thum, on Lake Thum in the Bernese Oberland.

GENEALOGY OF THE EPHRATA BOWMANS

THE HERR COLONY

The following Bowmans came to America and settled in the HERR COLONY of Palatinate Mennonites at Strasburg, Lampeter Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.

A In 1709 WENDELL BOWMAN, and in 1712 JOHN BOWMAN, and WILHELM BOWMAN, who settled with Wendell, and JOHN BOWMAN, settled in Mt. Joy, in Lancaster Co.

A WENDELL BOWMAN was born in 1681 and died in 1735. He was a coppersmith.

He married (?)

and lived in the Herr Colony at Strasburg.

There were the following children:

DANIEL was a fuller by trade as was also his brother, JACOB BOWMAN.

The Bowman estate was never settled until DAVID, the eldest son petitioned to the Court.

The Estate was known as the "OLD PLACE" adjoined the lands of JACOB BOWMAN, SAMUEL LANDIS, JACOB HIBSHMAN, JOHN GUNCKLE, consisted of 83 acres 132 perches east (?) north is correct of public road leading from Lancaster to Reading, cornering on the above tract lands of JACOB and JOHN GROSS, containing 34 acres 100 perches. (See map Page 5 BENJAMIN BOWMAN.)

The before-mentioned petition was to leave the land undivided from time to time to avoid inquest, and thereby spoiling the entire estate, it conveniently accommodating the six children, respectively the tract east of the Cocalico corner of Hibshman north by Kunkles down creek the several courses to the west bank, and to head race used by the Ephrata Society for a paper mill, thence down the middle of said race on several courses the tract of original land of JACOB and DANIEL BOWMAN.

SAMUEL BOWMAN TO BUY THE LAND FOR 8 THOUSAND DOLLARS, the sum for the whole $20,760, after decease of widow SALLY, all to go to SAMUEL BOWMAN and his heirs forever.

Signed by MARY BOWMAN, for CHRISTIAN, SAMUEL, DAVID, WILLIAM.

The said DAVID, CHRISTIAN, WILLIAM farmers of the same place, SAMUEL LANDES, JACOB GOCHLEY, SEBASTIAN GOCHLEY, SAMUEL MOHLER, appointed Guardians for the sum of $5,000 each.

SAMUEL LANDES, Guardian over HENRY, ISAAC and DANIEL
JACOB GOCHLEY, Guardian over GEORGE and CHARLES SEBASTIAN GOCHLEY, Guardian over SALLY and SUSAN.

KELLERS MILLS in Denver built by JACOB BEAR.

At Reamstown are the WABASH MILLS, custom and flour, about 1 mile from Stevens. The tract of 600 acres was owned by CHRISTIAN and JOHN LONG. They were sold by the Sheriff in 1845 and bought by JACOB and ABRAHAM BOWMAN, and at the latter's death, JACOB became the sold owner. It was later sold to DANIEL BOWMAN in 1859 at JACOB'S death, and later owned by STAUFFER.

ABRAHAM BAER owned 180 acres at Stevens, later by JACOB FREY. HIRAM BEAR married CATHARINE BAER, JOHN BAER'S widow.

JACOB BAER built the tavern at Blue Ball - also mills.

The JACOB HERSHBERGER property was disposed of by will to his 3 sons, JOSEPH, ISAAC and ABRAHAM HERSHBERGER, who also inherited the mills in 1762.

In 1794, the executors of the estate of JACOB HERSHBERGER, sold the mill property to ZERB and HEBBENHEIMER, and in 1797 PETER ZERB bought it, selling it in 1799 to JACOB KLEIN. The property then passed through the hands of JOSEPH GORGAS, GEORGE HACKER, and JACOB HOWER, who built the grist mill. It was then owned by the LONGS and then sold by the Sheriff in 1845 to JACOB and ABRAHAM, brothers, sons of JACOB (?) Whose executors in 1855 sold it to DANIEL BOWMAN, the 2nd.

In 1861, PHILIP STAUFFER re-built the mill and the mill dam and christened it the WABASH.

BOWMAN'S CEMETERY

Very early in about the 1740's, a plot of ground was set apart from the original 212 acre patent by the Penns to JOHN BOWMAN in 1738, which by the sale of 82 acres of land to his son DANIEL was on his farm, in Incorporated Ephrata, now on West Pine Street, on the east side and now at the intersection of Church Avenue, which at the time of this sale in 1763, was probably about half an acre, several hundred feet east of the east side of present West Pine Street.

No record has been found of the burials in this plot of any of the BOWMANS before 1806, at which time it was enlarged, evidently then containing quite a number of bodies.

In 1889, it was again enlarged and Incorporated for perpetual existence by the contributions of JACOB BOWMAN, ABRAHAM BOWMAN, GEORGE L. BOWMAN, ALBERT G. BOWMAN, CLAYTON L. BOWMAN, JOHN L. BOWMAN, JOHN C. BOWMAN and MARTIN WEIDMAN. The charter was recorded to EDWIN REINHOLD.

Miss Annie K. Madlem, 1703 Harrison St., Frankford, Phila., Penna
Miss Nora Connell, 249 W. Main St., Ephrata, Penna.

All descendants of this family, either direct or by marriage.

The name was spelled differently by various members of the family - Koenigmacher, Konigmacher, Konigmaker and KONIGMACHER, which latter will be the spelling used in this work.

K1-A-1 ADAM KONIGMACHER, the forebear of this family in Ephrata, was born in Europe in 1738.

As a young boy he came to America with the LUTHERS, KELPS and JOHN MARTIN. These families inter-married and settled in the Shenandoah Valley in Virginia, and later, when the Indians became troublesome, they came north into Pennsylvania, taking up land in the vicinity of the Ephrata Cloisters, in Lancaster County, Penna.

ADAM returned to Europe, where he married CHRISTINE EICHER, born in 1745 and brought her to Ephrata.

ADAM was a deacon of the 7th Day Baptists of Ephrata for 50 years, 40 years as a layman.

He died June 30, 1793 and his wife in 1816, both being buried in the Cloister cemetery.

There were the following children:

The Rule of the Sisterhood adopted in 1745 in the House of Sharon, accepted by them

The Rose is the accepted flower of Sharons. A spiritual betrothal with their celestial bridegroom whom they have espoused as their King-ruler-Lord with all eternity.

They vow their full allegiance and obedience to their spiritual Mother and Varsteheim and then of their fidelity and duty unto themselves and toward one another. After living in the house for one year and a day, the period of probation when a maiden consecrated herself, a benediction was pronounced over her by the Prior, as recorded in the Chronicon, Schweister Jael.

Be Blessed and Quickened at the fount of Consolation.
The Lord open up his secret treasurers and let you behold his wonders. Much good come unto you from the Lord and may the opening of your mouth be acceptable unto God in your lowliness. God will be exalted and bring you fresh honor. Whosoever loves you will be honored and your seed must quicken and for all time be recorded in the Holy remembrance of God. After this blessing, long preaching of a sermon and singing closed the meeting.
